

SPONSORSHIP FOR QUILT-MAKING COURSE

23 january 2008

Between 23rd and 27th of january 2008 we sponsored two participants from the village of kinar in tondano, north sulawesi to attend the b grade-class of the quilt-making course as the higher step toward a better quilt-making knowledge. The quilt-making course in this b grade-class was instructed by mrs. Yoshiko jinzenji herself. The participants expected to bring back the knowledge and taught others in tondano in quilting.

SPONSORSHIP OF A LIBRARY

23 January 2008

We are now sponsoring a library to facilitate the needs of the young people in the village in tondano to read. A modest library, "tou library" is now open in the village of liningaan, tondano, north sulawesi. "Tou" is shortening form of "si tou timou tumou tou", a fame local saying, means to make humans to become human beings in local dialects. The library has around 3,500 books, 600 dvd and modest reading rooms. Some books are donated by tondano people who now live in jakarta.

SPONSORSHIP FOR ACRYLICS HANDICRAFT MAKING

23 January 2008

On the same occasion we sponsored 5 participants from the village of liningaan and kiniar in tondano, north sulawesi to learn the acrylics handicraft making in jakarta. The products are expected to be sold in gift shops in the area as an alternative means of earning income supplement in the village.

MR. CHRIS CHONG

25 January 2008

On 25th of January 2008, Mr. Chris Chong, partner of Chris Chong & C.T. Ho, Singapore visited our office to discuss some Indonesian and China legal issues. Mr. Chris Chong is a young lawyer practicing in Singapore who has been in cooperation with us in many cases for many years.